PUBLIC LAWS.
Passed by the Regular Session of the Legislature of 1882.

An Act to amend section 563 of chapter 10 and chapter 79 of Revised Code of 1880 in relation to the sale of vinous and spiruous liquors.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Mississippi, That the clause of section 553 of the Code of 1880, to-wit:
"On each person selling vinous or spiruous liquors is the principal ingredient, in a less quantity than five gallons, and not less than one pint, one hundred dollars," be and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. Be further enacted, That the word "pint" wherever it occurs in sections 1097, 1098, 1103, 1108 and 1109 of the Code of 1880, be stricken out and insert the word "gallon." Provided, That this shall not apply to wine made of grapes grown in this State as is now provided by law.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That the word "knowingly," in section 1115 of the Revised Code of 1880, be and the same is hereby stricken out.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That all acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, February 23, 1882.

A Liberal, Progressive Governor.
Greenville Times

Col. W. A. Percy returned from Jackson on last Sunday, where he had been ardently engaged in promoting the railroad interests of the State and especially of our immediate section. It is with pleasure that we note what he says of Governor Lowry in this connection. In all the efforts of the railroad advocates and supporters to obtain liberal and enlightened railroad legislation, they had the heartily, open encouragement and co-operation of Governor Lowry.
He freely used his influence to secure a reversal of the first adverse vote of the house upon the Georgia Pacific charter, which was a test of the legislative railroad sentiment.
Col. Percy is more than convinced that in Governor Lowry the State has an active, intelligent and progressive Governor. One who will ardently lead the way in all measures calculated to encourage investments in railroads and manufactures in our State, and who would unhesitatingly impose the executive veto upon any measure calculated to retard or frighten away such enterprises. He is laying down just such a policy as we want him to lead in for the next four or eight years.

There is marital infelicity in Deadwood as well as elsewhere.
When a wife runs away with an affinity the bereft husband posts notices in the saloons, where they will catch the eye of a majority of the population. A recent one reads as follows: "My wife Sarah has snook my ranche. When I didn't doo a darnd thing too her an' I want it distinctly understood that any man that takes her In an' keeps her on my account will git blusset pumped so full of lead that sun tenderfoot will locate him for a mineral claim. If she runs her face far goods I won't put up for her, an' I'll lick the son-of-a-tar-nadde that talks her standoff even for the drink, a word to the wise is sufficient an' order work on tools too."

A traveler visiting a Mexican cathedral was shown by the sacristan, among other marvels, a dirty opaque glass phial. After eying it some time, the traveler said:
"Do you call this a relic? Why, it is empty." "Empty!" retorted the sacristan, indignantly. Sir, it contains some of the darkness Mosses spread over the land of Egypt."

A cockney inquired at the postoffice the other day for a letter for "Eury Hogden." He was told there was none. "Look ere," he replied a little angrily, "you've hexamined a hold letter for my name. It don't commence with a haich; it begins wit a ho. Look in the 'ole that's got the ho's."

A Paris photographer has invented a process by which he can take a likeness in the one-hundredth part of a second. This time is not so short, however, but the average boy could change his position three or four times during a sitting.

"The," said Mrs. Partington, "run down town and get some venou distinguisher; I do say, the cock-punchers are getting so humorous that I am almost repelled to decoy them," and Ike smilingly said "yesam."

"No, ma," she said, "Charles never can be anything to me more. He has come out in this last season's overcoat; and oh, ma, if it only matched my new dress, I wouldn't care so much, but it doesn't, and we have parted!"

"A while ago a party of lynchers down South postponed the hanging five minutes to allow the victim time to finish smoking a cigar.
This proves that the use of tobacco prolongs life."
